I have the honour to inform you that when Mr. Denham's services were engaged from the 13th February 1894 his service under the Madras Government for three years was taken over by the Government of Mysore by (a) Order C No 296-79 of 7th February 1894. The Order states that the three years service in Madras will count towards pension in Mysore, - but it is not stated that the service will count towards leave. I believe Government
